During the course of a debate, the President of HMUNEA may announce the list of speakers, and, with the consent of the HMUNEA, declare the list closed. The President may, however, accord the right of reply to any representative if, in the opinion of the President, a speech delivered after the President has declared the list closed renders this justified. Adjournment of Debate

Rule 27

During the discussion of any matter, a representative may move the adjournment of the debate on the question under discussion. In addition to the proposer of the motion, one representative may speak in favour of and one against the motion, after which the motion shall immediately be put to vote.

If the HMUNEA is in favour of the closure, the President of HMUNEA shall declare the closure of the debate.

Suspension or Adjournment of the Meeting

Rule 29

During the discussion of any matter, a representative may move the suspension or the adjournment of the meeting. Such motion shall not be debated, but shall immediately be put to vote.

- To suspend the meeting
- To adjourn the meeting
- To adjourn the debate on the question under discussion
- For the closure of the debate on the question under discussion.

Proposals and Amendments

Rule 31

Proposals and amendments shall normally be introduced in writing and submitted to the Executive Director, who shall circulate copies of the same to the members. As a general rule, no proposal shall be discussed or put to vote at any meeting of the HMUNEA unless copies of it have been circulated to all the members not later than the day preceding the meeting. Subject to the consent of the HMUNEA, the President may, however, permit the discussion and consideration of proposals or amendments, even though these proposals or amendments have not been circulated or have only been circulated on the same day.

Decisions on Competence

Rule 32

Subject to rule 30, any motion calling for a decision on the competence of the HMUNEA to adopt any proposal or any amendment submitted to it shall be put to vote before a vote is taken on the proposal or amendment in question.

Withdrawal of Motions

Rule 33

A motion may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before voting on it has commenced, provided that the motion has not been amended. A motion which has thus been withdrawn may be reintroduced by another member.

Reconsideration of Proposals

Rule 34

When a proposal has been adopted or rejected, it may not be reconsidered in the same session of the HMUNEA unless the HMUNEA, by a two-thirds majority of the members present and voting so decides. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to two speakers opposing the motion, after which it shall immediately be put to vote.

VII. VOTING

Voting Rights

Rule 35

Each member of the HMUNEA shall have one vote.

Majority required and meaning of the expression "Members present and voting"

The ability to be recognised for voting shall be undertaken by a delegate by using the "Raise Hand" option of the Zoom Meetings.

Rule 36

- Except where the present rules of procedure expressly provide otherwise, decisions of the HMUNEA shall be made by a majority of the members present and voting.
- For the purpose of these rules, the phrase "members present and voting" means members present and casting an affirmative or negative vote. Members who abstain from voting are considered as not voting.

Method of Voting

Rule 37

The HMUNEA shall normally vote by show of hands, but any representative may request a roll call, which shall then be taken in the alphabetical order of the names of the members by the President of HMUNEA.

Recording of the Roll Call

Rule 38

The vote of each member participating in a roll call shall be recorded in the relevant documents of the HMUNEA.

Conduct during Voting

Rule 39

After the President of HMUNEA has announced the beginning of voting, no representative shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of the voting. The President of HMUNEA may permit members to explain their votes either before or after the voting. The President may limit the time to be allowed for such explanations. The President of HMUNEA shall not permit the proposer of a proposal or of an amendment to explain the proposer's vote on the proposer's own proposal or amendment.

Division of Proposals or Amendments

Rule 40

A representative may move those parts of a proposal or an amendment shall be voted on separately. If an objection is made to the request for division, the motion for division shall go into voting. Permission to speak on the motion for division shall be given only to two speakers in favour and two against. If the motion for division is carried out, those parts of the proposal or of the amendment which are subsequently approved shall be put to vote as a whole. If all operative parts of the proposal or of the amendment have been rejected, the proposal or the amendment shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Voting on Amendments

Rule 41

- When an amendment is moved to a proposal, the amendment shall be voted on first. When two or more amendments are moved to a proposal, the HMUNEA shall vote first on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal and then on the amendment next furthest removed from the original proposal and so on, until all the amendments have been put to vote. Where, however, the adoption of one amendment necessarily implies the rejection of another amendment, the latter amendment shall not be put to vote. If one or more amendments are adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted upon. If no amendments are adopted, the proposal shall be put to vote in its original form.
- A motion is considered an amendment to a proposal if it adds to, deletes from or revises parts of that proposal.

Voting on proposals

Rule 42

- If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the HMUNEA shall, unless it decides otherwise, vote on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted. The HMUNEA may, after each vote on a proposal, decide whether to vote on the next proposal.
- Any motions requiring that no decision be taken on the substance of such proposals shall, however, be considered as previous questions and shall be put to the vote before them.

Equally Divided Votes

Rule 43

If a vote is equally divided on matters other than elections, the proposal shall be regarded as rejected.
