If the motion for division is carried out, those parts of the proposal or of the amendment which are subsequently approved shall be put to vote as a whole. If all operative parts of the proposal or of the amendment have been rejected, the proposal or the amendment shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Voting on Amendments

Rule 41.

1. When an amendment is moved to a proposal, the amendment shall be voted on first. When two or more amendments are moved to a proposal, the H-MUNEA shall vote first on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal and then on the amendment next furthest removed from the original proposal and so on, until all the amendments have been put to vote. Where, however, the adoption of one amendment necessarily implies the rejection of another amendment, the latter amendment shall not be put to vote. If one or more amendments are adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted upon. If no amendments are adopted, the proposal shall be put to vote in its original form.
2. A motion is considered an amendment to a proposal if it adds to, deletes from or revises parts of that proposal.

Voting on proposals

Rule 42.

1. If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the H-MUNEA shall, unless it decides otherwise, vote on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted. The H-MUNEA may, after each vote on a proposal, decide whether to vote on the next proposal.
2. Any motions requiring that no decision be taken on the substance of such proposals shall, however, be considered as previous questions and shall be put to the vote before them.
